The background is a dark, charcoal grey with a fine, grainy texture. Scattered across the surface are numerous small, irregular shapes in two colors: a vibrant red and a deep forest green. These shapes resemble fallen leaves or petals, some appearing as solid colors while others have a slightly textured, almost fibrous appearance. They are distributed unevenly, with a higher concentration in the upper left and middle sections, and a few isolated shapes towards the bottom right.

PEOPLE

A combination of self,
books,
things,
others,
make the colorful people of Troy State College.

A combination of veterans,
commuters,
in-service teachers,
parents,
regular high school graduates,
instructors considering students junior colleagues,
and a physical education department, unequalled,
make life colorful and stimulating at Troy State College.

We are prey to the adage, "The more we learn, the more we learn there is to learn,"
and we seek out books,
ideas,
conversations,

For each new quarter brings new textbooks, teaching new words,
methods,
miracles,

And in the quietness of the library, we read and research and think.

CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY, THE FRENCH REVOLUTION, BUSINESS LAW, MUSIC APPRECIATION, SHORTHAND, MILTON, COMMUNITY RECREATION—these are some of the books that help make the colorful and dedicated students, who tomorrow or next year will be the businessmen, teachers, musicians, and coaches of Alabama and the world.

Problems are solved or ironed-out over coffee and cigarettes in the Student Center and

In the Baptist Student Union Building in solitude and repose.

THE TROPOLITAN, THE PLAYMAKERS, ATHLETICS, THE RED WAVE BAND, THE PALLADIUM—these are of the activities that help teach organization,

self-respect through evaluation,
appreciation of others,
reliability.

We learn by all these means that there is enough room for the personal accomplishment of everyone

The study of ourselves and others, and a better understanding of the world around us will make us colorful and useful citizens and parents and teachers of tomorrow and the years to come

Dr. Smith has a wonderful philosophy of life and every waking minute is filled with concern for the students at Troy State College. President Smith is recognized as one of the leading college Presidents in the South and Troy State College has gained national recognition under his leadership.

Dr. Smith has spent the last twenty-two years building, physically and intellectually, toward the college of his dreams . . . Troy State.

Genial scholar, romantic, friend of the Angels, is Emmett Kilpatrick. Docteur es Lettres, lover of French civilization, confidante of Milton, a latter-day Confederate, New Dealer, he is both a cosmopolite and an American Nationalist. His feet are on the ground in the economic and political facts of life, his mind peers into the distant horizons of the future and along the mountain-tops of enlightened human desires. In his teaching Dr. Kilpatrick is Milton or Shakespeare as the great words and thoughts flow. Literature lives for the student as he reads.

He is many things in one, and all of them good. He is the epitome of the ideal in the practical and the practical in the ideal: Christian teacher and friend of humanity!

COACHING

Dr. Earl Watson, Director of Athletics

Coach Clipson says . . . The 1958 football season was by far the best we have had since I came to Troy State College in 1955. Although we won only three games, we were definitely a threat until the final minutes in five of the six games we lost. Naturally, the coaching staff was disappointed that we did not win more games, especially since we were leading at half time in six of the nine games. Several of our defeats could have been victories if we had had a little more confidence and poise. We are firmly convinced that this team showed the possibilities of future accomplishments on the gridiron and that this season was just the beginning of better football at Troy State.

*Dr. William F. Clipson
Football and Golf*

John A. Archer, Basketball and Tennis

The Red Wave closed out the 57-58 season with a record 7-19-6 representing District 19 in the National Tournament for the second straight year.

The beginning of the 1958-59 season found the Wavemen with five returning lettermen, Bob Moore, Kenneth Everett, Bobby Terrell, David Watson, and Paul Hartman, backed by squadmen Dave Gingold, Jeff Cooke and Charles Henderson. Ralph Nash, a Junior College transfer, also joined the squad.

Our squad lost only one game from the floor out of the eight lost thus far. The free throw line has been their downfall.

STAFF

Coach Nix says . . . Desire is the aspect that I admire most in an athlete. There are many other things that a coach will look for which will definitely include ability. The 1958 squad possessed both of these qualifications, with some boys having a greater endowment of the intangibles than the tangibles. Most of these boys will be on hand for the 1959 season which points to a lively if not successful campaign. Although there are outstanding players who deserve individual recognition, our measure of success is always in terms of team achievements.

Paul E. Nix, Baseball

Nicholas G. Costes, Cross-Country and Track

Coach Costes says . . . Our track and field team launched the new sport with two wins and one loss. Undeclared in their specialties during the track and field season were Mac Palmer in the 100 and 220 dashes; Ron Beck in the 880 yard run; and William Gowan in the mile. In Cross-Country, the team, in their second season, copped six victories and dropped four. In the Troy Chamber of Commerce Meet, Ron Beck finished third, but first for Troy State among 27 runners.

The Student Coaches say . . . In working with the football team this year, we were particularly impressed by the loyalty and good relations that existed between the coaching staff and the team. We were also personally gratified by the fine spirit and determination demonstrated by the players. Possessing these factors, the future should become brighter for the Red Wave of Troy. May you have much success in the season to come.

RED WAVE

Bobby Phillips, Captain from Adel, Georgia, lettered four years with the Red Wave. Serving as a center, fullback, and guard, Phillips was noted as one of the finest players in the Red Wave's history. With all the possibilities of a "little All-American," Phillips was an all around football player. Here's to the toughest of the lot,

*Bobby Phillips Right Guard

Harry "Bozo" Hammond, the largest man on the squad, was elected to the first tackle post again this season. Bozo hails from Valley Head, Alabama, where they grow them big and rough. With weight and ability, he played excellent ball all season long. Here's to the roughest of the crew,

*Harry "Bozo" Hammond Right Tackle

Mac Palmer, the leading ground gainer and top scorer this season, came to Troy two years ago from East Mississippi Junior College. Gaining over 300 yards and scoring 36 points, Mac showed his heels to many of our opponents. Troy will miss the "race horse" next year when football season rolls around again. Here's to a fine, speedy back,

*Mac Palmer Right Half
Age 22
Weight 150

O'Neal Messick, fullback from Abbeville, Alabama, returned to Troy after being absent for a year. A guy who lived the game and gave it his all will wear a Troy uniform no more. Here's to a hard running senior fullback,

SENIORS

Charles "Tiger" Williams played four years of varsity football here at Troy State. Being small in size but large in ability, he gave Troy fine performances at end this year. Here's to a kingsize player from Georgiana, Alabama, with a lot of desire . . .

Mack Wood, from Greenville, Alabama, came to Troy State only two years ago. Over this period of time he gained the confidence of the team because he was elected Co-Captain of the 1958 Red Wave Squad. Wood, being the type of player any team would want, gave Troy a back who could run, block, and play defense all bundled up in one. Here's to a giant in a football uniform,

Mack Wood Left Halfback

Leo Brooks, a fine guard from Bainbridge, Georgia, came to Troy State three years ago with a "golden toe." He scored 13 points for the Red Wave this year—7 extra points and 2 field goals, giving Troy the kind of kicking a team needs. Here's to an "Old Man" with a lot of hustle,

Leo Brooks Left Guard
Age 24
Weight 185

Ted Missildine, the youngest senior on the team, came into his own this, his senior year. Hurt with injuries most of his college career, he switched to guard this year to give Troy added strength in the line. Here's to a fellow with ability,

THE PALLADIUM

Every year a new staff resolves to publish "the best book this campus has ever seen." And we honestly believe we have.

We have had our share of letdowns and missed deadlines. We have worked hard and smiles have been few and far between. We want to especially recognize the art work which was done by Roy and the dedication write-up which was done by Bette.

We have attempted to show all phases of student life, and the staff sincerely hopes you enjoy this year's PALLADIUM.
